- All writers must be resident in New Zealand or New Zealand citizens.

The Work(s)

Silver Scroll and Maioha Awards:

- The work must be an original popular song. It must not be an arrangement or adaptation of a traditional non-copyright work or any other original work.
- The work must have
  - a. been made available as a recording for purchase by the public in New Zealand and;
  - b. been first broadcast in New Zealand between: 21 July 2006 and 30 June 2007.

SOUNZ Contemporary Award:

- The work can be solo, chamber, ensemble, choral, orchestral, electro-acoustic or a combination of any of these. (There is no restriction on duration.)
- The entered work must have been performed for the first time in public between: 21 July 2006 and 30 June 2007.

Conditions

- Not more than two works may be submitted by or on behalf of any one writer in any one award category. A separate entry form is to be completed for each work. If you require additional entry forms please photocopy this form, or download extra forms from www.apra.co.nz
- In the event of more than one writer having collaborated in writing the winning work, the cash award will be allocated between the writers.
- Unless specifically requested, the copies of recordings submitted shall be retained by APRA. Copies of recordings and scores submitted for the SOUNZ Contemporary Award may be retained by SOUNZ, for lodgement in the Centre for New Zealand Music library.
- The entrant shall (or shall cause the copyright owner of the entry if different from the entrant to) permit APRA and any person APRA authorises to perform the entry in and as part of any APRA award ceremony and to record it for those purposes.
- APRA will have the right to print the name and likenesses of any entrant in publicity in respect of the competition and all matters incidental thereto.
- The entrant agrees to allow APRA to stream the work(s) entered on its website and reproduce the lyrics for the purposes of judging.
- The entrant agrees to be bound by APRA's entry procedures, and rules and regulations established in this entry form.
- APRA shall have the right to interpret the above conditions and to determine all issues arising out of this contest. Any such interpretations and determinations shall be final.
- All decisions in regards to the selection of the short list by the judges, and the selection of the finalists by the member votes, are binding. No correspondence will be entered into.
- The entrant is to ensure that all information given on the entry form is true and correct.
